

Resolution to rescind naming of the HEC building

The College of DuPage Faculty Senate calls upon the Board of Trustees to rescind the naming of the Homeland Security Education Center in honor of current president Robert Breuder on his retirement as revealed in the approval of the fourth addendum to his contract. The Senate believes that the naming of this building should occur if and when a more suitable candidate emerges.